 Handcrafted Product

MAEMA Totes has a mission of proliferating the fashion industry with products handcrafted from upcycled materials. Our totes are not made in a factory but handcrafted by artisans based in Atlanta Georgia and West Africa. We import up-cycled plastic woven totes and craft the totes in a variety of shapes and sizes. "Green fashion is high fashion" our motto, as we want to create sustainable products for everyday use. We want the world to acknowledge that sustainable fashion is a culture, a way of life and a practical approach to addressing the amount of plastic waste we humans generate. By up-cycling the leftover plastic woven mats from factories across West Africa we are doing our part in the reduction of plastic pollution. All materials are ethically sourced.

👋Welcome to the MAEMA Family!
